

Clarice (Tsui-Hua) CHEN (陳翠華)/Managing Partner, Patent Attorney

Clarice (Tsui-Hua) CHEN is the Managing partner of Rich IP & Co. She has been handling patent matters in Taiwan for more than twenty years in the areas of pharmaceuticals, chemistry, chemical-engineering as well as biotechnology, and is specialized in patent prosecution, invalidation and infringement analysis as well as portfolio management and litigation. Ms. CHEN is one of the educators invited by the National Taiwan Intellectual Property Training Academy (TIPA) for delivering courses to the instructors and advisors of TIPA, her thesis entitled "Study on Patent Term Extension System" had urged the Patent Authority in Taiwan to amend the provisions relating to patent term extension in the Patent Act and many suggestions provided in the thesis had been adopted in the 2013 Amendments. Prior to establishing Rich IP & Co., Ms. CHEN served from 1990 to 2005 as a senior patent agent of Lee and Li.

Education:

- National Taiwan University, (MS and BS in Chemical Engineering)
- Franklin Pierce Law Center, Research in Intellectual Property (IPSI & ALI)
- Shih Hsin University (MS in Law)

Publications:

- Textbook entitled "Practice of and Guidelines for Patent Application Procedures (Advanced)" for TIPA (2009)
- Study on Patent Term Extension System (I), June 2008, Intellectual Property Right Journal (published by the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office)
- Study on Patent Term Extension System (II), July 2008, Intellectual Property Right Journal (published by the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office)
- Textbook entitled "Practice of and Guidelines for Patent Application Procedures" for TIPA (2005)